ELIGIBILITY:

Each award applicant must be a U.S.A. citizen and no older than twenty-four years of age. Only the first five applications which have been received on time will be accepted.

The application must include three signatures: 1. Applicant. 2. Parent (guardian). 3. Private instructor of the applicant. A photocopy of the applicant's birth certificate must accompany the application. It will be returned.

Each applicant must be currently enrolled in a college or university school of music as a music major, with piano as the principal performance instrument. (Must be majoring in piano.)

PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE AUDITION:

Two solo works are required, one from the Baroque era or from the Classical era and one from either the Romantic or Modern eras. Memorization of the compositions is required. A piano selection will be given to the applicant at the time of the audition for the purpose of sight-reading. Repertoire requirements follow. Recorded auditions are not accepted. Thirty minutes will be provided for the audition. Auditions will be held virtually via Zoom beginning at 8:30 am on January 8, 2022.

ADJUDICATORS:

Qualified, impartial adjudicators will be provided, and their comments will be sent to the applicant. The applicant must provide original music scores to be performed for the audition, with all measures numbered.

Following the applicant's musical performance, there will be a brief time for sight-reading and other oral theory questions which may include the playing of scales, arpeggios, etc.

AWARDS: The Rosamond P. Haeberle Award will be at least $4,000.00. Musical excellence will be rewarded. Each award winner will perform at a concert on Tuesday, March 8, 2022, and receive the cash award at this time. (Each winner must provide income tax information.)

Award winners may not re-audition in consecutive years for the same award.
