

COLLECT

WE praise and thank Thee, Father, for the gift of music. Through us as channels of Thy grace, may this blessed legacy be shared with all mankind.

GRANT that we may exemplify in our own lives the harmony of Thy great purpose for us.

GIVE us magnitude of soul and such understanding hearts that we who make music may be as players upon rightly tuned instruments responding to Thy leading.

LET us with renewed consecration, dedicate ourselves to the purpose of our Federation, to bring the spiritualizing force of music to the inner life of our nation. Open our minds that divine knowledge and wisdom may teach us how best to execute our pledge.

Vishnu Srinivas, Piano

Vishnu is a sophomore at The University of Michigan School of Music, Theatre, and Dance, majoring in Piano Performance. He is formerly a pre-college piano student at the Manhattan School of Music. He has received numerous first-place awards at the national and international level, including the Vivo International Music Competition. Vishnu has performed on Multiple occasions at Carnegie's Weill Recital Hall and the Kaufman Center's Merkin Hall. He is also pursuing a degree in business administration at Michigan's Ross School of Business. In his free time, Vishnu loves to watch football and play chess.

This prestigious award is in honor of the late Rosamond Haerberle, an accomplished musician, educator, and advocate for the arts. A member of Tuesday Musicale of Greater Pontiac for several years, Rosamond held leadership positions in a number of business and professional circles throughout Michigan. The annual award is granted to an aspiring college piano major who has successfully auditioned two memorized compositions.
